Minneapolis Insurance Executive Alycia Riedl Named President-elect of NABIP

WASHINGTON, DC - Alycia Riedl, a Minneapolis-based insurance agent, was named president-elect of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals Board of Trustees at the association's 93rd Annual Convention this week in New Orleans.

Riedl is currently a principal and client relationship manager in Mercer's Minneapolis office. Previously, she was a senior consultant in the Health and Group Benefits Practice at Willis Towers Watson.

Riedl has more than 20 years of experience in human resources and benefits consulting. She's been a member of the association since 2007. She served as president of the Minnesota state chapter from 2013 to 2014 and held many other leadership positions at the national, state, and local levels.

Riedl graduated from the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities with a degree in psychology and received her Master of Business Administration from Saint Mary's University of Minnesota in 2007. She lives in Minneapolis with her family.

"I am honored to be named president-elect of NABIP's Board of Trustees," Riedl said. "My fellow Board members and I cannot wait to get to work advocating on behalf of NABIP members nationwide -- and helping expand access to affordable private health insurance."
