Maggie Stedt Receives Spirit of Freedom Legislative Award

Washington, D.C. — Maggie Stedt was honored with the esteemed Spirit of Freedom Legislative Award during the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals' (NABIP) 34th Annual Capitol Conference in Washington, D.C.

The Spirit of Freedom Award, a highly sought-after accolade within the NABIP community, is bestowed upon someone who has demonstrated exceptional dedication and made significant contributions to state and federal legislative endeavors. Recipients of this award exhibit exemplary leadership qualities by forging strong relationships with legislators, effectively advocating for public policy reforms, engaging with influential media platforms, and championing grassroots initiatives.

“Maggie Stedt's distinguished four-decade-long career in insurance has left an indelible mark on the industry and the association,” stated NABIP CEO Jessica Brooks-Woods. “As the driving force behind the Senior Summit model, a pivotal event tailored for Medicare agents, Stedt has elevated it into a vital platform for legislative discourse and policymaking. Her visionary leadership as the president of both Orange County and the California Agents and Health Insurance Professionals (CAHIP) underscores her unwavering commitment to advancing the interests of the industry and insurance profession.”

“Furthermore, Stedt's active involvement in national committees such as the Medicare Advisory Group highlights her dedication to shaping industry-wide policies and regulations. Her exemplary service and advocacy have earned her numerous accolades and commendations, solidifying her reputation as a stalwart advocate for legislative freedom and reform.”

In recognizing Maggie Stedt with the Spirit of Freedom Legislative Award, NABIP celebrates her unparalleled contributions and steadfast commitment to advancing legislative initiatives that uphold the principles of freedom and innovation within the insurance industry.
