Linda Erlenbach Named Secretary of NAHU

(Arlington, VA) – Linda Erlenbach was elected to the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) Board of Trustees as secretary at the 80th Annual Convention last week in Chicago.

Erlenbach, founder of L.M. Erlenbach, Inc., has been licensed in the life and health market since 1975. During the course of more than 30 years in the industry, she was a partner in a life and health agency, worked several years for a health insurance carrier, and owned and operated a home health care agency. In 1986, she opened her own independent agency, specializing in individual health insurance and the small-employer group benefits market.

She joined NAHU in 1986 and has been actively involved since then, serving as a member of her local and state board, and most recently as regional vice president. She lives and works in Aurora, OH.

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents more than 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is headquartered in Arlington, VA. For more information, visit our web site at www.nahu.org.
