Tom Harte Named New Treasurer for NAHU

(Arlington, VA) – Tom Harte was elected to the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) Board of Trustees as treasurer at the 80th Annual Convention last week in Chicago.

Harte, president of Landmark Benefits, has worked for many years to improve the health insurance industry through his extensive legislative work. As a member of NAHU since 1996, he has served as chairman of the Legislative Council and president of the New Hampshire state chapter. He has also received numerous awards and recognitions for his legislative work from professional organizations and the New Hampshire state legislature.

Harte is a member of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and is actively involved with several community service organizations such as the Make-a-Wish Foundation. A graduate of the University of Massachusetts at Lowell, Harte lives in Chester, NH, with his wife and three children.

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents more than 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is headquartered in Arlington, VA. For more information, visit our web site at www.nahu.org.
