

Media Advisory

NAHU CEO Janet Trautwein to Testify at Senate HELP Hearing

- WHAT: The Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions is hosting a hearing on “Increasing Market Stability and Options for Repeal and Replace of the Affordable Care Act”
- WHEN: Wednesday, February 1, at 10:00 a.m.
- WHERE: 430 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington, DC
- WHY: As the chief executive of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU), Ms. Trautwein is a well-known expert on health insurance market reforms. NAHU applauds the efforts of the Senate HELP Committee for highlighting the critical need to focus on market stability moving forward. Ms. Trautwein will speak about insurance-market reforms and the need to enhance market stability, health insurance choices and affordability. NAHU believes this can be accomplished without disrupting the employer market or limiting individuals’ ability to choose the health plan that best fits their needs.

INTERVIEW

OPPORTUNITIES: Please contact NAHU’s SVP of Public Relations Kelly Loussedes at 202-595-3074 or kloussedes@nahu.org.

###

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents more than 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is headquartered in Washington, DC. For additional information, visit NAHU’s website at www.nahu.org.